February 22

Hello, families of loved ones residing at Caressant Care McLaughlin Road. We are sad to report one new COVID related death. Our hearts go out those affected.

Test results from swabs done Friday are all negative. All staff and residents are being swabbed again today.

If you would like to come in as an essential caregiver, please touch base with Amber. You must sign up again to come back in as an essential caregiver.

Thank you and have a lovely day.
